Corvette wins North American Car of the Year Award - CNN

This spring, about two dozen Corvette owners from around the country spent two days learning how to bring four tires, 19 state-of-the-art computers, and a 650-hp V8 engine into roaring synchronicity. The first day in the classroom is all about car control, especially as it pertains to cornering and braking.

Driving School for Corvette at Spring Mountain: New Roads

The Corvette got the holeshot, and at this point I thought it was all over for the Monte Carlo. But then, with its front end lifted high, it started to pile on some serious speed. The 1/8-mile is short, but it's all the room the Monte needed to get the job done.
