First of all, BUGLES AND A TIGER is the story of Masters's early life, his training at Sandhurst, and his departure to the Indian army, and his career as a soldier on the Afghanistan frontier. It is a touching portrayal of life in the army, but it is also an affectionate memoir of the Gurkhas, because he was an officer in the 2nd Battalion, 4th Prince of Wales's Own Gurkha rifles.

Bugles and a Tiger Top Notch Aug 9, 2007 by Sailor. A great book covering the period from the mid-1930s to the beginning of WWII. Masters served with the Indian Army, specifically in a Gurkha regiment. He writes of his training at Sandhurst, his "break-in period with a British regiment and his ultimate assignment to his Gurkha regiment.
