After finishing Complete Shibari 1 and 2, I immediately set to work on Complete Shibari 3. At the time, I had perhaps 20 pages of content. As I wrote, Complete Shibari 3 grew until I split it into Complete Shibari 3 & 4. Then it grew into three separate books. Then four. Most other authors write one book.

It's certainly not "complete". It's quite a short book at less than 100 pages, and the first 15-20 pages are purely information about safety and protocol. And one thing that bothers me is that there are several pages sprinkled randomly throughout the book which are simply artistic photos of ties the author has done (presumably) with no instructions for how they were done!
