Since He did not, He is to blame. In one sense, those statements are true. Isaiah 45:7 seems to validate the idea that God is to blame for everything that happens: "I form the light and create darkness, I bring prosperity and create disaster; I, the LORD, do all these things." And Isaiah 46:9-11: "Remember the former things, those of long ago; I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is none like me. . . .
