My diary will speak louder than the roar of the bombs, the cries of the children, and the suppressed silence of the settlement. I pull out a red, inky pen and use the last drops to scribble a few words onto the faded, maroon surface: Diary of a Syrian Refugee. Until the end, salaam, Abdullah

Diary of a Syrian Refugee - Muslim Youth Musings

A set of 12 lessons covering geography, maths and writing objectives, based around refugees. After identifying different countries and geographical features, children plan a refugee's journey from Syria to the UK, and then 'go' on those journeys, using tablets and maps to help them. Different challenge cards will require the children to re-route their journeys, and children then reflect on this journey.
