Kurzel's Macbeth: Aesthetics of a War Drama | The Artifice

The film's colour palette moves increasingly towards a fiery, bloody red. The film makes the most of darkness, with occasional shots of bleak white mountains causing the viewer to flinch in surprise at the light. The climactic duel between Macduff (Sean Harris) and Macbeth takes place in a haze of red and floating ash.

Review: Justin Kurzel's Macbeth | Shakespeare Reloaded

That said, Kurzel has created a visually-striking hell that is all of Macbeth's own making. The criticisms made of Kurzel's Macbeth thus far seem to have to do with what parts of Shakespeare's source play are emphasized in this adaptation - sometime that partly reflects on Kurzel's direction, but perhaps more so the manner in which screenwriters Jacob Koskoff, Michael Lesslie, and Todd Louis approached the material.
