Morris West's Lazarus is a cri de coeur in more ways than one. On a basic level, West has parlayed his own experience with life-saving cardiac surgery (and its impact on his life) into come up with an amazingly realistic account of the same transformation experienced by the Pope.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Lazarus (The Vatican Trilogy)

Lazarus sets the stage within the intricacies of international diplomacy and internal Vatican politics, but it does not stay focused there. West has ultimately written a book of conversations and moments of private reflection centred around individu Intriguing, heartfelt and elegantly written, Lazarus is ultimately a tale of the most basic, yet profound questions human beings continue to ask; Who is God?
