As soon as it was light again, we ate some bread for breakfast. Then we decided to go to the beach. We took our guns and two big bottles for the water, and we went to the beach. Once we were on the beach, I didn't want to lose sight of the boat, so the boy went alone a bit further inside the land to get some fresh water. He returned after some time.

Retold for Learners of English by Diane Mowat. 'I often walked along the shore, and one day I saw something in the sand. I went over to look at it more carefully . . . It was a footprint - the footprint of a man!' In 1659 Robinson Crusoe was shipwrecked on a small island off the coast of South America.
