Another self-indulgent design monograph (practically everything we have ever designed including the bad stuff) is Stefan Sagmeister's hand-scrawled subtitle for the first book about his work, Made You Look. This, and the book's clear red case and silver-gilded pages, seem contrary to the raw, handwritten style he is known for, already setting us up for a wild and very pers.

Sagmeister: Made You Look by Stefan Sagmeister

Published as a paperback in a red transparent slip case. Removing the book from the red tinted transparent slip case causes the mood of the dog to worsen considerably; bending it over results in the title "Made You Look" (or in the other direction: dog food) showing up on the fore edge. Peter Hall wrote a very detailed text (for a design book), I included handwritten excerpts from my diary and many comments from our dear clients.
