The play was finally presented on stage in 1921 and it created the very stir Schnitzler had feared it. In 1950, the great French filmmaker Max Ophuls made a movie of it, under the title La Ronde and that's the title it's usually known by today. Hare says of his version that he "freely adapted" it from Schnitzler.

The Blue Room is one of three state parlors on the first floor in the White House, the residence of the President of the United States. It is distinct for its oval shape. The room is used for receptions and receiving lines and is occasionally set for small dinners. President Grover Cleveland married Frances Folsom in the room on June 2, 1886, the only wedding of a President and First Lady in the White House. The room is traditionally decorated in shades of blue. With the Yellow Oval Room above i
