This book really does get better towards the middle, the first half can be a little tedious with Chloe, the protagonist, explaining her predicament and her surroundings. Yet as I always, after a few too many late nights thanks to not being able to prise my Kindle from my hands, the book came to a gob-smacking conclusion.

The Summoning - Quest - World of Warcraft

The romance felt forced with Christie running into this tall blonde agent's arms. There was a lot of filler with conversations with ghost and detectives to kill time. I felt two hours could have been chopped off. The walk down by the cemetery was completely point less. Let me stop, the narrator made this book better.
