"Will & Whit" by Laura Lee Presenting my second original graphic novel: Will & Whit! Wilhelmina "Will" Huckstep is a creative soul struggling to come to terms with a family tragedy. She crafts whimsical lamps, in part to deal with her fear of the dark.

"Will & Whit" by Laura Lee

Wilhelmina "Will" Huckstep has spent the summer in a small Virginia mountain town. As the summer begins to come to an end, Will is hoping to make the rest of the summer days count. Will loves creating lamps of all kinds of unique and different designs, partially as a way to battle her fear of the dark. She builds them as a way to cope, to chase out the darkness from the corners of her mind.

Gulledge, Laura Lee. Will & Whit. Amulet/ Abrams, 2013. 192p. $12.95 Trade pb. 978-1-4197-0546-5. Will is seventeen, but she likes old things so much that she makes lamps out of objects from yesteryear. Lamps chase the shadows away, and Will says this is the story of how she escaped her shadow. Wordless panels suggest that there had been a car wreck.
